Nars Brow Defining Cream in 'el djouf'

$24, SAKSFIFTHAVENUE.COM

"I can't say enough about the Nars Brow Defining Cream! I feel like my lush, Latina eyebrows now perfectly frame my face without overpowering in color."

Givenchy Phenomen'Eyes Mascara

$32, SAKSFIFTHAVENUE.COM

"I'm obsessed over Givenchy Phenomen'Eyes mascara's spherical brush! I feel like I can never go back to regular shaped brushes because this one cleverly curls my eyelashes without any clumps."

"Our key makeup artist, Kymber Blake, introduced a few of these over the last three seasons we've been working together on the show," says Ruiz.

L'Oréal La Palette Lip

$16.99 EACH, LOREALPARISUSA.COM

"I confess, I own the nude, plum, and the red color palettes! These palettes replaced the dozens of lipsticks weighing down my purse. Now, I have color options, matte or glossy choices, and when I'm in a sassy mood, I can even highlight, contour, and blend. Every girl should relieve her purse of weight with one single La Palette. Or maybe have all three like me!"

Dayle Breault Heartfelt Emulsion Day Cream

$84.88, GODDESSOFSKIN.COM

"Kymber introduced this day cream when I was on location in the desert. After four days in the sun, I never got a sunburn and my complexion stayed clear and hydrated."
